Eligibility

If you are unsure about your eligibility, please enter and we will contact you if we have any questions if your work is shortlisted. We encourage anyone who is interested to enter the competition.

The Writers' Award is only open to those who are:

- Over 18 years old
- Currently living in the UK (regardless of immigration status), due to the nature of the prizes and opportunities on offer.
- From underrepresented backgrounds (as defined on the entry form).
  - Please choose any and all categories which apply to you when entering. We ask that you self-identify under the above categories and do not ask that you prove your eligibility.
  - We champion people who are underrepresented in a range of ways, on the assumption that people will use their judgement about the barriers and issues they have faced. We have never turned anyone away as ‘not underrepresented enough.’
- Have not yet secured a literary agent or published a book, or are under contract for publication this year, in creative non-fiction, fiction/YA or poetry.
  - This does not include stories/poems/short pieces published in magazines, journals, anthologies or online.
  - Your entry to the competition must not have been published previously in a magazine, anthology, or online where there is an external selection process (e.g. except on your own blog, website, or social media).
  - This does not include self-published books.
  - It does include poetry pamphlets.
  - It does count even if you intend to enter in a different genre than you've been published in (poetry, fiction or creative non-fiction).
  - It does not include academic, technical, cookbooks or children's books or similar.

Entries:

- This year's theme is 'Material.' It is a creative prompt, not a requirement. Send us your best work!
- Please do not put your name on your work. Judging is anonymous.
- The best way to see what we're looking for is by purchasing a previous anthology here.

Word Limits:

- You can submit one piece of writing, up to the word limits (not including the title, section/stanza breaks, or epigraphs).
  - Poetry: 50 lines.
  - Fiction: 2,000 words.
  - Creative Non-Fiction: 2,000 words.
- There is no minimum word or line count.

Frequently Asked Questions:

- I'm not sure if my work fits the theme.
  - The theme is a creative prompt, not a requirement. We are looking for quality writing first and foremost.
- Can I enter under a pen name?
  - You may use a pen name, including for the Award announcement, publication and associated publicity.
- Can I enter an excerpt of a longer work?
  - You are welcome to submit an excerpt of a longer work if it works as a stand-alone piece.
- What do you mean by creative non-fiction?
  - We are looking for memoir, lyric essays, narrative/immersive journalism, nature, food, travel and place writing. Please read our blog post here.
- Can I include words in another language?
  - It's fine to include footnotes or similar to translate anything that isn't clear in context if necessary. These are not considered part of the word count.
- Are there any restrictions on adult content or genres?

- There are no restrictions on explicit content. We do not accept scripts, screenplays or children's writing. Our judges do not tend to select straight genre work (sci-fi, fantasy, crime, horror or similar).
- Can I include photos, illustrations or complex typography?
  - The anthology is printed in standard black-and-white text and no photos or illustrations can be included. We would make every effort otherwise, e.g. for a shape poem or accents/diacritics for non-English words.
- Why are poets who've published pamphlets ineligible?
  - We realise this is disappointing, but the Award is aimed at new and unpublished writers. We sometimes have opportunities for early-career poets so do subscribe to our newsletter.
- I have a literary agent, am I eligible?
  - If you currently have formal literary agent representation, you are not eligible. This does not include if you formerly had an agent but not at present, or have agents interested in your work but you have not contracted with.
- Can I get feedback on my entry?
  - We unfortunately do not have the capacity to give any feedback on submissions.
- I need to make changes to my entry.
  - Submissions cannot be altered after entry. You can withdraw your entry and make a new one if needed.
- My entry was accepted for publication/won a prize elsewhere.
  - Please notify us immediately to withdraw your submission.
- Can I use AI (such as ChatGPT)?
  - Your work must not have been created using AI software, unless this is done in a transformative or artistic way and is clearly indicated. Please abide by the Authors Guild guide to best practice. Work discovered to have been generated using AI will be disqualified.
- Can I send a hand-written entry by post?

- We prefer typed entries, but accept handwritten entries—keep copies as entries will not be returned.
- Do you have any writing workshops on offer?
  - We offer workshops across the year depending on resources. You can see what we currently offer here.
- Can you help me get an agent, publish my book or with other 1:1 writing support and advice?
- We don't have capacity to offer 1:1 support or other services. We do not maintain a list of literary agents. You might want to look at our Resources and Pathway Guides.
